Cow Killed in Brutal Manner-Owned by Hugh McComb Had Entrails Pulled Out by Unknown Man-Chorus Choir at Congregational

By an act of the utmost crueity, per-formed by a man of whose identity there is not the alightest trace, Hugh McComb of 92 Fourth street lost a val uable Hoistein cow about a o'clock Friday morning in a manner so peculiarly brutal that indignation was aroused throughout Greeneville and the city, where the news quickly spread.

When at 4.39 Friday morning Mr. McComb went to the barn of the Shetucket company off Prospect street he found one of his two cows lying dead found one of his two cows lying dead and the other with her hind legs tied and stretched out behind her. An examination showed that an iron poker with a hook on the end had been thrust into the cow and the entrails drawn forth. The poker, which was three feet long, had evidently been pushed in to the end, and a later examination showed that the kidneys had been torn and other internal organs injured causing ed that the kidneys had been torn and other internal organs injured, causing considerable bleeding. The cow must have suffered great pain, but any noise was prevented by thoroughly wrapping her head in baga, which was also done with the other cow.

Mr. McComb, after an examination, informed Policeman Allen C. Matthews, who notified Chief Murphy, but a careful search by the police and Mr. Mc-ful search by the police and Mr. Mc-Comb failed to reveal a single clue to the perpetrator of the outrage. Every effort, however, will be made to ferret out the guilty man or men. Deputy Sheriff Draper was also notified of the

The animal was removed to Preston

The other cow showed no marks of violence, but probably from fear she refused to eat or drink all day Friday and seemed in bad shape.

Mr. McComb purchased the cow Mr. McComb purchased the cow killed from Charles B. Chapman ten weeks ago for $65 and she gave eight quarts and a half of milk. Mr. McComb, who has a small milk route, milked the animals as usual Thursday night and then went home, leaving the stable unlocked as years and, he said.

The First Congregational church, Norwich Town, was crowded to the doors on Friday evening at the union evangelistic meeting. As the three cars from the city came the songs of the campaign were heard from the chorus choir. With the pastor, Rev. G. H. Ewing, were the following pastors:
Dr. S. H. Howe Rev. P. C. Wright, Rev. Dr. M. S. Kaufman, Rev. C. H. Ricketts, Rev. Jerome Green and Pay I. P. Verning Green and Pay II. P. Verning Green and Pay II. P. Dr. M. S. Kaufman, Rev. C. H. Ricketts, Rev Jerome Greer and Rev J. R. Very. The union chorus choir was seated on the platform and in the galleries. The songs were sung under the direc-tion of George A. Turner, and added much to the inspiration of the meet-ing. H. L. Yerrington was organist.

Next Week's Mesting.

After the singing, Rev. Jerome Greer offered prayer. Rev. Mr. Ricketts said that the size of the congregation in this church, winch is a little at one side, justifies the committee in planning to continue the campaign. Another meeting will be held next Wednesday evening at 7.45 o'clock in Trinity Methodist church. Dr. Howe will be the speaker. A letter from Dr. Stough states that they have been crowded out of the Presbyterian church
